Press Release

Consistent Computer Bargains Recognized As a 2010 VAR 500 Top Solution Provider in North America.

Racine, WI — Wednesday, May 26, 2010 ... Consistent Computer Bargains, Inc. (CCB, Inc.), a national leader in representing nonprofit and charitable organizations for affordable technology solutions was recognized by CRN magazine in its 2010 VAR 500 listing of largest IT solution providers based in North America.

CCB, Inc. is a long-time supporter of nonprofit organizations and a leading source for affordable technology through strategic partnerships with leading vendors like Microsoft, Adobe, Apple, Symantec, Dell, HP, Lenovo and more. The key to CCB's growth and increasing strength in the market has been an uncompromising attitude towards customer service committed to providing the best computing solutions, managed services, support and special pricing programs to over 50,000 nonprofit and charitable organizations.

"We're proud to have achieved the position of a VAR500 member," said CCB's president, Chris Booth. " Our commitment to be pro-active and heighten the nonprofit voice to software and hardware manufacturers, gives CCB the opportunity to give back to communities and offer nonprofit organizations drastically reduced costs on software, hardware, managed services, and support as a standard policy."

About CCB, Inc.

Consistent Computer Bargains, Inc. (CCB, Inc.) has played an important role in developing substantial savings for nonprofit organizations, and by initiating charity-pricing programs in 1991, became the first national, authorized reseller to exclusively work with nonprofit organizations.
